

Catholic Schools Week

Join us as we celebrate how we Walk Together in Faith & Love!

January 29th – February 3rd is Catholic Schools Week. Listed below are the activities that will take place at St. Cletus School to celebrate how we Walk Together in Faith & Love!

Catholic Schools Week Activities:

Sunday, January 29th	Mass: 10:30 AM & Open House: 10:30 AM - 2:30 PM Please join us for Mass followed by an open house at the school for current and prospective families. St. Cletus students should attend with their families and wear their school uniforms.
Monday, January 30th	Favorite Sport jersey with uniform! Wear your uniform with any sports jersey you'd like – just remember to be appropriate. Make Valentines for the Elderly in class!
Tuesday, January 31st	Our School is SOUPER!! Regular Dress today – we have 8am Mass. We will say a special blessing for Teachers at the Mass! Bring a soup can to donate to the food pantry. Work as a school to create a chain across the halls about what we pray for at St. Cletus!
Wednesday, February 1st	Teacher Appreciation Day Teachers can dress down and will enjoy lunch from the FSA! Students can wear spirit wear!
Thursday, February 2nd	Student Appreciation Day: Books, Board Games & Buddies! Teachers will find a time during the day to share some special time with their buddies. Full Dress Down - Dress comfortably, according to the out of uniform code, to have some fun on the floor. No homework day! Milk and cookies for students!
Friday, February 3rd	Red & White Day! Red and White Game We've got spirit, yes we do, we've got spirit how 'bout YOU!? Students in grades 1-8, wear your assigned red or white color along with gym shoes for the red and white volleyball games, which take place throughout the school day – See the schedule from Ms. Pryor. Spirit wear for everyone else! Early childhood students come out and cheer on your buddies!