

Catholic Schools Week

Join us as we celebrate how we celebrate our

Unity in Faith and Community!

January 25th – January 30th is Catholic Schools' Week. Listed below are the activities that will take place at St. Cletus School to celebrate how we Unite in Faith and Community!

Catholic Schools Week Activities:

Sunday, January 25th	Mass: 10:30 AM & Open House: 11:30 AM - 2:30 PM Please join us for Mass followed by an open house at the school for current and prospective families. St. Cletus students should attend with their families and wear their school uniforms.
Monday, January 26th	Jersey with uniform! Wear your favorite jersey with your uniform – just remember to be appropriate. Have a Math competition in Class - challenge each other!
Tuesday, January 27th	Our School is SOUPER!! Regular Dress today with crazy socks – we have 8am Mass. We will say a special blessing for Teachers at the Mass! Bring a soup can to donate to the food pantry. Write a letter as to why we strongly agree that "God Is Present in My Life" post these in the hall!
Wednesday, January 28th	Teacher Appreciation Day Teachers can dress down and will enjoy lunch from the FSA! Students can wear spirit wear!
Thursday, January 29th	Student Appreciation Day: Books, Board Games & Buddies! Teachers will find a time during the day to share some special time with their buddies and also do a classroom Rock, Paper, Scissor tournament. Full Dress Down - Dress comfortably, according to the out of uniform code, to have some fun on the floor. No homework day! Treat for students and Rock, Paper Scissors School show down at 2:15pm
Friday, January 30th	Red & White Day! Red and White Game We've got spirit, yes we do, we've got spirit how 'bout YOU!? Students in grades 1-8 , wear your assigned red or white color along with gym shoes for the red and white volleyball games, which take place throughout the school day (Schedule tbd) Spirit wear for everyone else! Early childhood students come out and cheer on your buddies!